Hengkong, 21st April, 1861. A. CARD. DROFESSOR WHEELER, would respectfull attract the attention of the Hengkong Public to the importance of having the Hair Out, and Dressed in an Artistic manner and style Appropriate to the Individual is the out of the Hair: there can be no fixed or provailing fashion without destroying almost universally the harmony of the fout suremile. Indeed as diverse at is the contour of the human head and facial outine, just sopeculiar should be the true and arrangee ment of the Hair. This fact is acted upon by only those Hair-Outters who possess an inherent udgment in matters of taste, onitivated and unproved by incessant study and application. Of this rare class, Professor WHEBLER, humbly claims to be one, and the Only One in this Colony, and he m idently but confidently invites all who may be distructful of his ability to give him at least a trial before pronouncing an adverse opinion. The surprise of the American conflict have n ceneed with the cassati in of war. Even the sudden and total collapse of the Southern Confederaor was less wonderful than the events which have suggested it. It seems seargely too much to my that the erest violery of the Nathern Benubli cans will result in the complete discoulling of their party; and that the absolute conquest of the South will only end in its re-admission to the political wer which it had so long monopolized, and the I sa of which drave it into rolettion. To explain I'lls paridox we must refer to the ald balance of partie in the Union and the present position at the negro. The Demorate of American included all the politiciaus of the South, and all those of the North whose general sympathics with Southern statesmen were stronger than their objection to slavery. Un to the Presidential election of 1680 this party had maintained the a cendency, but at that moment the pretensions of the South to earry street into the T reitories had became so ohnox joins that the Republicans won the day, and Mr Line le became President, On this the South endenvouted to deatch itself altogether from the North, but the Republicans under Mr. Line In resisted the attempt, and supported by the strong popular sentiment in favour of the Union, prevailed area more. This brought the two parties to the position which they accupied at the explore of Richmon I, when things once in we took on abrupt and most tinexpected turn. The desire of the Republicans was to consummate their work by making the emmainated negro the equal of the white man, and placing him on the same level of citizenship. But this, though only a logical o melusium, and a natural sequel of the abolition Office and residence. of slavery, was more than the party at large was prepared to accept . The majority even of Northorn Americans, though desirous of extupiting g'avery, were not at all disposed to fraternise with the negro, and this difference produced a cohiem in the party. The touchstone was " negro soffrage."- a proposition which, besides being ohnorons to the Democrats was unwalcome to the Republicans also. Only with & minarity of the party | . 106 at Wanchi, having Water frontage new denominated Rudicias, did it find any favour, mud in this way the great Republican phalanx which had elected the President and proclaimed the war became disorganised and divided. The Demograte new their opportunity, and, what is not R little extraordinary; they have induced the peo-The of the South to see it also. They have avowed principles which, now that slevery is out of the question, will lead to the adaption of Southern policy once more. They invited the South to return to political activity, and the South with those prospects before it, seems to favor the proposal. Slavary is gone, and can embroil parties no more, so that all that is now expected from the South is the frank recognition of defeat and the unreserved acceptance of the old terms of Union. This done, the combined Democrata of the North and South, reinforced by the moderate Republigins, will be strong enough to surport the pullry of a President already inclined by personal bink to similar views. By a strange inversion or counterchange of purpose their movements have turned the Southerners into Unimists and the al-Pederals into dissentients. The "reconstruction of the Union" is the great object of President dep, situated at the Morque Street, Bent $25 per Johnson, in which he is supported by the Demo- month, possession can be had immediately on apcrate of the North and the conciliated population | plication to of the South. Instead of the sullen disaffection which might have been anticipated in the States of the Confederacy. we find only an eager desire to return to the institutions of former days; insomuch that South Carolina has been actually threatened with the postponement of her "reconstrucison" as a penalty for her prominent malignancy. Everywhere the cry is for the removal of the mili- by the U. S. Vice Consultary, the re-appointment of the civil officers, and the restoration of the status que. But this of ments, and is well provided with, Buthrooms, Out course, presumes a "reconstruction" on terms | Houses, &c. acceptable to the South, and as such conditions are odious in the eyes of the Radicale, the more eminent members of that party have actually memorialized the President against " reconstruction." They do not wish to see the Union hus vestored, and they sex for delay. They would prefer to see the South treated for some time longer as a couquered country, and excluded from representation : Pracetically, there fore, they are now agitating against the Union, while the men who were lately lighting in the armics of the Confederacy are nurious to restoro it. Few people would ever have dreamt of such a result as this, but we are assured that such is really the tendency of events in America, and that the policy of the President, which is for more Democratio than Republican, will thus receive effectual support. The Democrats do not " enders:" his policy without reserve, but in the main that approve it; while the Radicals condema it absointely, and as the substance of this policy is reunion, it can only be accomplished by such measures as will entiry the Democratic party more: and more. The most assonishing thing of all, next. however, its the spirit which we are told is now. growing in the South. The Begeders are sa'd to have e mpletely forgotton their military defeat, and to be delighted with their political prospects. They are indulated with visions, not merely of ples of ten years since. The "domestic institution " is gone, and there is an end of it; but other respects the policy of the Government will he a Democratic policy, or policy of the South, As to the negro, be the got his freedom, but he will get nothing more. He has ceased to be a slave, but he will not be recognised as a citizen. | rately. He must find a middle place for him elf somehow or somewhere-it does not much matter where or how. It seems evident that President Johnson, though not desirous of alienating any party, is strongly inclining to those principles of moderntion on which along the Union can be substantially restored. The policy of the Radicals would not only enspend the reconstruction of the Union in favour of a military occupation of the South, but it would scandalize and estrange a very large number of Northern people by the admission of the negro to anffrage and equality. So the President concedes point after point with more or CIX GODOWNS, in Queen's Road, East, hav less reserve, wellcomes the repentant O offederates as they come in, and even visits with his displeasure the more active Radicals who condown his proceedings. In the meantime, however the south is being rejed ted. Large bodies, not only of Europe immigrance, but of emigrants from th Northern States, go down to settle in the territo ries of the late Confederacy, and whenever a garrison is dishanded the soldiers are encouraged to east in their lot with the people around them and establish themselves where they are. The Badi- tan. cals rather expect that this may create a Republican party in the Bonth itself, forgetting the aptitude with which retriers imbibe the habits and prejudices of their adopted country. It will not escape remark that if slavery was really the cause I the WAN IHI WHARP, with or without bringing the cause to an absolute decision. Sha- can be ladened and discharged. very, it is true, will exist no longer; but the negro s left in a species of political purgatory which will neither content him nor his friends. Already we are told that large bodier of negroes have declared their preference of old masters to new, and have taked for work in the plantations rather. than employment in Northern towns. What their pre ent mensures of the Rad cale. They demand negro suffrage and en-equally between black and & Oo.'s Office. Praya West. white, so that a new slave ou atlon will be started, to be argued and fought over again. The abolitionists will find as much grand for agitation as ever, for though they have abolished slavery they have not abolished the disabilities of the slave.

Houses, Lands, Tenements, &c.

They will continue the controversy, and though !

their prospects may not be encouraging at present,
